

FACTS	WHAT DOES SALOMON AND LUDWIN DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?
Why?	Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.
What?	The types of personal information we collect, and share depend on the product or service you have with us. It is the policy of Salomon and Ludwin to restrict access to and/or the sharing of all current and former clients' information (i.e., information and records pertaining to personal background [including social security number and address], investment objectives, financial situation, tax information/returns, investment holdings, account numbers, account balances, etc.) to those employees and affiliated/nonaffiliated entities who need to know that information in furtherance of the client's engagement.
How?	All financial companies need to share client personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their clients' personal information; the reasons Salomon and Ludwin chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing. Salomon and Ludwin may also be required to share your personal information if required to do so by a judicial or regulatory process.

What we do

How does Salomon and Ludwin protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does Salomon and Ludwin collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Open an account
- Make a deposit

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choices will apply to everyone on your account—unless you tell us otherwise.
